

Monday Night Ladies' Bible Study

"Job (A Story of Unlikely Joy)" by Lisa Harper

September 10 – October 15, 6 pm - 7:30 pm in the Family Center
Book Cost: $15 (Pay at first session.) • Facilitator: Tammi Ogletree

About the Study: Joy is the constant companion of the woman who trusts in the Lord. And while you can find it in friends, family, and circumstances, unflinching, persistent joy will only ever overflow from your relationship with Jesus. Just ask Job, the man from Uz who clung to God's goodness while all his worldly joys were stripped away. But how is it possible to hold onto such joy in times of sorrow? In this 7-session study, discover the redemptive facet of Job's suffering. Learn to view pain as a way to strengthen your faith, point others to the gospel, and trust in the Lord. Because His providence will never take you to a place where His grace will not sustain you.

Thursday Morning Bible Studies

Dragonfly Ladies: "Reading Timothy & Titus with John Stott"

About the Study: We live in a land where truth is subjective, individualized, and culturally conditioned. That same troubling thinking had invaded the churches led by Timothy and Titus, so Paul's pastoral letters to them focus on the objective and universal truth revealed in Jesus.

About the “Ruth” Study: If you were a slave, who would buy your freedom? If you had an enemy, who would come to your defense? In the Old Testament, this buyer-defender known as a ‘kinsman-redeemer’ was usually a close relative. If you are a believer, you already have one – Jesus Christ! This study shows how Jesus both bought us (redeemer) and advocates (defends) for us, offering us an opportunity to rebuild broken lives.

Precept Bible Study: “Passing the Mantle” 2 Kings 2-14/Chronicles 21-25
October 4 – November 1, 9:00 am in Worship Center, Room W201.

About the Study: Could there be a man or woman like Elijah in our time - someone with his mantle who would boldly believe God and proclaim His Word? This study will help you experience the unchanging power of God in changing times!
